

Special Assistant to the Judge Advocate General for Regulatory Law and Intellectual Property

Chief, Regulatory Law and Intellectual Property Division
The Judge Advocate General's Corps
U.S. Army
Mr. Robert N. Kittel

Mr. Robert N. Kittel was born in 1945 in Baltimore, Maryland. He graduated from Parkville High School, Parkville, Maryland in 1963 and attended Loyola College, Baltimore, Maryland, where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in 1967 as well as receiving a commission from the Army ROTC program as Distinguished Military Graduate. Upon being commissioned he entered the JAG excess leave program and attended law school at Villanova Law School graduating with a JD degree in 1970. In 1980 he received an LL.M from the National Law Center, George Washington University.

Mr Kittel serves as Special Assistant to the Judge Advocate General for Regulatory Law & Intellectual Property and Chief of the Regulatory Law & Intellectual Property Division, US Army legal Services Agency. He was appointed to the Senior Executive Service in 1993 upon joining the Office of the Judge Advocate General (OTJAG), Department of the Army. Prior to joining OTJAG he served for 14 years as an attorney with the Office of the General Counsel of the Navy in a number of assignments with the Office of Counsel, Naval Facilities Engineering Command. He first served as an assistant counsel, then Associate Counsel (Regulatory Law) and finally as Deputy Counsel in 1986. Before entering federal civilian service in 1979, Mr. Kittel served on active duty with the Army Judge Advocate General Corps. His assignments included Ft. Lewis, Washington, US Army, Vietnam, Seneca Army Depot and US Army Support Command, Hawaii. He had two assignments in the national capital area, first as a trial attorney in the Army Regulatory Law Office and later as Counsel, Armed Forces Institute of Pathology. He is a member of the Retired Reserves.

Mr. Kittel is married and has three children and three grandchildren.